The amount is Checking account ..... $ 214.37
TOTAL BALANCE $2067.25

SAR:

Update on the mounted organization, it is more like a play day. Group decided not to participate. Mock Search will be May 3-5, 2002. There was a good turnout for the classed at the Fair grounds. Joyce Edin passed out flyers on what horses must qualify on for Patrol, SAR, and Parades. Mike will host a training seminar on 3/9/02 if he can get 10 people to go.

MOUNTED PATROL:

Some people have been riding at Skookumchuck, Scatter Creek, and military reservation. Keep it up and don't forget to call in!!

OLD BUSINESS:

Horse qualifications will be on May 11, 2002 at the Fairgrounds. Can me have a makeup time to maybe qualify more than one horse? Went over the different obstacles to be overcome. Sheriff ride is June 22,23, 2002 some of the things are all set up and will need help on others. Have the new T-shirts. On March 8, 2002 and March 22, 2002 officers will be at Red Lobster for the "Cops and Lobsters".

NEW BUSINESS:

By-laws changes brought up to be voted on at the next meeting. Copies will be mailed to all members that are not here. County Fair would like our help during the fair to patrol the parking lots and back of the horse barns on Friday and Saturday nights, at least, until about 11:00pm. Can do it in 4-6 hour shifts and they would have a parking place designated for us. It was moved, 2nd, and carried that the group purchase 3 coats in sized that are needed.

CHRIS:

Passed out schedule for the academy. It will be held at the county EOC. Attendance is mandatory, with expectations. See Chris for questions. It will start March 25, 2002. Parade uniforms was discussed and it was decided to go with the black jeans, black cowboy hat (or helmet), white shirt, bolo tie, and black boots. Talked about a lightweight vest and Ken will bring some samples next meeting. The embroidery would be about $20.00 each. This quarter's range schedule was also passed out. Remember it is at the Olympia Police range. Must qualify if you want to carry handguns. He will check on rifles. Chris went over how to complete the time sheets. They must be in pen and signed.

Connie P. will bring goodies next meeting.
